Dramatization of a Healthcare Liability Trial

Most in the healthcare community have not witnessed or been involved in a malpractice trial. The following 22-minute video gives you a flavor of the intensity, stress, unpredictability and potential lack of control that the defendant may feel. Having a robust defense team can make all the difference in the outcome of a verdict.

If you prefer to jump to a specific part of the trial, you can fast forward to the following segments:

- 0:00 – Introduction and Explanation of Trial Proceedings
- 2:20 – Background on the Case
- 3:34 – Opening Statements
- 8:26 – Direct Examination of Defendant Physician
- 12:31 – Cross-examination of Defendant
- 16:37 – Closing Statements

What Does a Medical Scribe Do? Everything You Should Know

Medical scribes serve one of the most critical roles in healthcare today. By transcribing a patient's information in real-time during a medical visit, managing electronic health records (EHRs), completing paperwork, and more, scribes work to remove clerical work from the desks of physicians so patient care can be their top priority.

Now is the time to make tax-saving, year-end moves

As the holidays approach, it's time to consider tax planning moves that will help lower this year's tax bill, as well as set you up for tax savings in future years. The good news is that it appears there won't be any significant unfavorable federal tax changes that will take effect next year.
