Medical Practice Scheduling Tips to Help Improve the Bottom Line

Appointment scheduling is a critical function of a doctor's office, yet many practices schedule in a seemingly haphazard fashion. Yet nothing annoys patients more than spending a long time in the waiting room. This article introduces three scheduling philosophies and strategies to improve your medical practice scheduling, which can lead to happier patients and a stronger bottom line.

Breaking Down Communication Barriers in Collaborative and Team-Based Care

Laura M. Cascella, MA, CPHRM

Successful communication among healthcare providers has long been a critical element of patient safety. Yet, in recent years, the importance of good communication has become even more pivotal with the growing emphasis on collaborative and team-based care. As healthcare delivery has evolved and caring for the patient population has become more complicated, the paradigm of the solo practitioner has given way to more complex.

About your Circle of Friends Program:

The Circle of Friends is composed of companies and organizations that donate and support the Bexar County Medical Society. Their donations help us to provide services to you, the physician member. In addition, their donations help keep the cost of your dues down. Let us show our appreciation by using the services and products from our Circle of Friends contributors at every opportunity.

Thank you to our BCMS Circle of Friends sponsors! Donations from Circle of Friends sponsors help keep down the cost of dues and allow BCMS to continue to provide quality services to its members. The Society continues its pledge to you that it will only involve itself in services and programs that benefit you, the member, and your patients.
